

Giornata di studio

Gender-Based Stereotypes in the Legal Field:

Research findings and emerging directions from the JUSTEqual research project

Institutional greetings

Serena Quattrococo Deputy Dean for International Programs | Department of Law, University of Turin

Introduction

Joëlle Long JUSTEqual Scientific Coordinator | Department of Law, University of Turin

Language, Justice, and Gender-Based Violence: A Linguistic Approach

Susan Ehrlich (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics, York University, Canada) in conversation with Andrea Cabiale (Department of Law, University of Turin), Angela Zottola

(Department of Cultures, Politics and Society, University of Turin) and Ilaria Giordano (Department of Law, University of Turin)

Detecting gender-based stereotypes: initial explorations of a psycho-social research perspective

Raymond Corrado (School of Criminology, Simon Fraser University, Canada) in conversation with

Georgia Zara (Department of Law, University of Turin), Sara Veggi (Department of Law, University of Turin)

and Paola Maria Torrioni (Department of Cultures, Politics and Society, University of Turin)

Closing remarks

Cesarina Manassero (Lawyer, President of the Committee for Equal Rights | Chamber of Lawyers of Turin)

Wednesday, October 29th, 2025 | 9.30 – 12.30

Sala Lauree Rossa - Campus Luigi Einaudi - Lungo Dora Siena 100/A, Turin

L'evento è stato accreditato dall'Ordine degli Avvocati di Torino.

La partecipazione all'evento è titolo per l'attribuzione di 3 crediti formativi

Registration online form required

