The Masters is jointly organized by the Department of Law of the University of Turin and UNICRI, and is intended to offer a unique insight in International Criminal Law, its implementation, and the activities of International Organizations and Tribunals operating in this area.

Following a distance learning module, the residential phase of the Masters takes place at the United Nations Campus in Turin from January to July 2016. This edition is attended by 43 participants coming from 26 countries representing all the 5 continents.

Hoping to see you on this occasion, we send you our best regards,

Edoardo Greppi
Director of the Master
